

Where the Arts Begin

Taking place in the coming months, based at The Atkinson, this new hands-on arts course is for people living with dementia, their families and those who support them.

Participants can get creative and make new friends in this weekly art group.

The group will have special access to collections at The Atkinson, and take part in a range of creative activities inspired by what they see. No previous experience of arts or creativity is necessary.

For more information, and to reserve a place, contact Tabitha Moses at tabitha.m@thebluecoat.org.uk or by calling 0151 702 7781.